

H & W Publishing Inc. thanks you for your interest in our company. We are a publishing company who specializes in literature for African American Children.

Writers Guidelines

Writers we are looking for: fiction picture books for ages 5-12 and chapter books for ages 7-12

- Characters should be contemporary
- Storylines: adventure, childhood mishaps, light topics,
- Books may also teach the value of friendship, honesty, forgiveness, courage, determination, and achievement in a contemporary setting

Picture books please submit complete manuscript and bio with contact information.

Chapter books please submit chapters 1, 2 and final chapter along with a bio and contact information.

Our goal is to inspire as many children as we can to find joy in reading.

Manuscripts not selected will only be returned if you include a SASE. We will respond within 2-3 months by mail. We ask that you do not call or email us.

Our Terms: Generally pays writer by the project and a royalty of 5%.

Illustrator Guidelines

Illustrators please submit four samples of original work. Printed tear sheets, photo copies, or actual prints/drawings are acceptable. However, if you have a website, which exhibits a minimum of four pieces of original work, you may send us your URL in place of the portfolio. Samples will only be returned if you include a SASE. However, we do request that you submit one piece that we are able to keep on file for future reference. (Please label this piece.) Along with your work please include a bio with contact information and a list of mediums used. Will respond within one month if interested.

Our terms: Generally pays illustrators by the project and royalty between 3% and 5%.

Submit to: H&W Publishing Inc.
Submissions Department
P.O Box 53515
Cincinnati, Ohio 45253